

Can you even recognize the West?

If just a few years ago things like this would had happened in the west it would had been considered unimaginable. How much things have changed! The entire West is on the verge of falling under the most brutal communist regime the world has ever seen. Watch what is currently happening in Australia:

Of course this is not an isolated incident, but it is an effort that can be observed throughout the entire western world.

The devil is doing everything it can to ensure nobody will stand a chance, nobody gets prepared. Every saved soul is a victory against the gates of hell that the devil cannot stand, cannot endure. Watch what happened in Romania, just last week, to a possessed person during the funeral of Fr Iustin Parvu, which testifies again for the Holiness of this Great Saint. The person can be seen screaming: "he is a Saint, he is a Saint!"!
