Because the truth behind the fake science of climate change is hurting the power elite who is trying to sell us to the worldwide communist beast, they decided it is time to gag everyone. We guess going forward science is only acceptable if it serves the coming antichrist ! If anyone still "believes" the West is a free society, they will soon have a "truly religious experience".

Do you also "believe" the church you are going to is free to speak the truth either? The indoctrination into accepting the "new values" is everywhere, even in schools. Do you know what your kids are being thought?
